

PEDAGOGY
(specialty 13.00.01)

Sizintseva E.P. Problems of methodical supply of schools in terms of modernization of Russian educative system and adoption of FSES of the second generation

The article touches upon the problem of the accordance the educational-methodical complexes to the new requirements connected with the modernization of Russian system of school education and with the introduction of the new educational standards. The author analyzes different approaches to the design of the complexes and comes to a conclusion that it is necessary to define tendencies in the field of planning and modeling activities as well as to reveal the most perspective solutions to improve the efficiency of the methodical work.

Key words: educational-methodical complex, the new educational standard, methodical work, activity approach.

State secondary school № 1374,
Moscow

February, 15, 2012
