

LAW
(specialty 12.00.01)

Lepyavsky A.N. Uniqueness of state-and-law institutions of Soviet government in 30-50s XX century (on the base of Magadan region)

On archival materials such government organizations as the Trust Dalstroy effective on the Kolyma and Magadan, the author shows the synthesis of various methods of management, implemented it, using labor as civilian workers and prisoners, used in construction in the Stalin era. The uniqueness of the state-legal unit trust Dalstroy was due to the specific socio-economic and political development of the region. Features of the legal position of the organization ensure a high level of economic and cultural development in the areas of Kolyma and Chukotka, which laid a solid foundation for nation-building in the Magadan region.

Key words: Dalstroy, Magadan region, state, economy, the NKVD, judgment, freelance, cons, agriculture, industry.

Don

institute of law

December, 21, 2012
