

ECONOMICS
(specialty 08.00.05)

Doev V.K. Analysis of social-and-economic preconditions of physical training culture and sport development in Republic of North Ossetia-Alaniya

It is considered the issues of economic management services of the market in the field of physical culture and sports in the Republic of North Ossetia-Alania. It is shown that the Republic of North Ossetia-Alania, formed the material basis of available sports and health services, and created social and economic opportunities for the further development of physical culture and sports. North Ossetia-Alania has a long tradition in the field of physical culture and sports, and local athletes are making a major contribution to the sporting success of Russia in the international arena. North Ossetia-Alania is a great potential for the development of physical culture and sports. Consequently, the regional perspective of functioning sphere of physical culture and sports of North Ossetia-Alania is a need to keep the formation of an effective mechanism for the operation of physical culture and sports of the Russian Federation.

Key words: sports facilities, physical education and sports in Republic of North Ossetia-Alania, regional characteristics of sports management economy.

North-Ossetian state university of K.L.Khetagurov, Vladikavkaz, Russia

January, 23, 2013
