

PHILOSOPHY
(specialty 09.00.14)

Zhukova N.S. Church ideology and religious ideology. Notion, essence and specificity of church ideology

It is considered nature, development, diffusion of church ideology and religious ideology, their role in the life of society and public consciousness. There are conditions and historical trends in the emergence and development of the church ideology. It is indicated the connection of religious and church ideology. In the result it is produced comparative analysis of church and religious ideology. Religious ideology is a personal, subjective feeling and experience, church ideology is directed to the masses. The object of religion is man, the object of the church – the collective mass, society. The author presents a comparative table of the main characteristic features of church and religious ideology. In the end the author gives a definition of the church ideology.

Key words: state, ideology, church ideology, religious ideology.

Southern federal university.

Rostov-on-Don, Russia

July, 21, 2013
