

PEDAGOGY
(specialty 13.00.08)

Skripkina A.M. Development of criteria and assessment apparatus of graphic competence formation of military technical university students

System of evaluation criteria of the level of formation of graphic competence of military high school students is based on the requirements of the ФГОС БПО. Assessment the level of formation of graphic competence of military high school students during the development of the discipline "Engineering Graphics " is determined by identifying the level of formation of each structural component of graphical competence. Based on the goals and challenges facing the future of military specialists in graphic preparation process it is identified and disclosed criteria for the formation of graphic competence of students. The article discusses indicators corresponding to the developed criteria, and identifies four levels of formation of graphic competence cadets of military technical college in the development of maintenance of discipline "Engineering Graphics".

Key words: engineering graphics, graphic competence, universal graphic competence, level of formation of graphic competence.

Academy of Russian FSE. Orel, Russia

November, 18, 2013
