

ART STUDY

Shokorova L.V.

(Altai state university. Altai region, Russia)

Mountain Kolyvani's landscapes as source of inspiration of the Altai artists

Historical curiosity, need for studying and preservation of regional art proves the study of local features of formation of cultural space of the Altai territory, in particular to Mountain Kolyvani. The figurative and historical perception of this region is shown by the Altai artists in creation of the graphic and picturesque thematic works reflecting realistic plots of occurring events, portraits of the people working in Altai. Studying historical Kolyvan subject is reflected in works of the fine arts of artists of the Altai territory, causes relevance and has essential value for research of art of the region and preservation of a cultural heritage of the Altai territory. The purpose of this work is to give the complex analysis of works of the fine arts of the Altai artists, identification of an originality of stylistic features of their works of art.

Key words: Mountain Kolyvan, Altai, landscape, painting, historical and cultural heritage, natural complexes.

April, 24, 2014

---