

PEDAGOGY

Mikhail A. Kharlov

(Shadrinsk polytechnic college. Shadrinsk, Russian Federation)

Historical-logical analysis of the problem of secondary vocational education institution reflective management

The article deals with the relevancy of conducting the research problems of reflective management in the institution of secondary vocational education. Theoretical analysis of the development of the concept of reflexive control was conducted and also the possibility of its application in the management of institution of secondary vocational education that is the scientific novelty of the research. The positive experience of reflexive management at Shadrinsk Polytechnic College is presented.

Key words: reflection, management, the institution of secondary vocational education.

September 17, 2017
