

PHILOSOPHY

Nadezhda N. Isachenko

(Tyumen industrial university. Tyumen, Russian Federation)

Modern Russian society in the dynamics of socio-cultural processes

The article is devoted to the study of the problems of modern Russian society in the dynamics of socio-cultural processes. Understanding the dynamics of socio-cultural processes of modern society is one of the fundamental problems of social and humanitarian knowledge, which determines its relevance. The relevance of this study is also due to the objective need to determine the mechanisms of the entire Russian society, ensuring its sustainable development. Special importance is attached to the study of socio-cultural changes that affect the public consciousness. Analysis of socio-cultural processes in Russian society has shown that the modern stage is characterized by an instability and development, as reflected in various forms of destruction. Socio-cultural processes carried out in society should contribute to the creation of decent living conditions of members of society, the development of their creativity, initiative through the implementation of the principles of humanism.

Key words: sociocultural changes, constructiveness, destructiveness, ambivalence, stability.

March 11, 2018
