Literary and musical evening as a form of educational work with foreign students

The article considers the process of organizing educational work with foreign students receiving higher education at the Academy of the State Fire Service of the Ministry of the Russian Federation for Civil Defense, Emergencies and Disaster Management (AGPS of the Ministry of Emergency Situations of Russia) in the form of a literary and musical evening. Motivation plays an important role in teaching a foreign language, and due to the increase in the number of foreign students in Russian universities, prerequisites are being created for teachers to solve the problem of organizing and conducting high-quality educational work in various forms. This plays an important role for better adaptation to the conditions of the country of the language being studied and the successful development of speech skills among foreign students. The scientific novelty of the study is to identify the features and characteristics of the experience of holding an event in the format of a literary and musical evening at a departmental university of fire-technical profile.

Key words: educational work, educational events, literary and musical evening, foreign students, song.
